The Brilliants made it three straight wer the Senators in iast night's games in the league championship series. This puts be Brilliants in the lead for The Herald hampionship trophies. The chief honor for all this belongs to "Bob" Young of the Brilliants, who not only broke the league record for a single game high score, but also broke the league record for three consecutive games. Young's score in the last game bowled was 237, breaking Hane's record of 234. His score for the three games was 626, or thirty-two points better than the previous high mark held by Walton. This gives him an average of 208 2-2, which is liable to stand for some time. The scores: Brilliants.

New York, Oct. 25.—Owners of baseball clubs and representatives from every prominent baseball league in the United States, with the exception of the Iwo major organizations, assembled today for the last game expect to roll up a much larger score. The High school also has shaken its line up considerably, and feels confident. Coach Hedger of the High school said that the boys bave been practicing diligently, and although the preps are a trifle heavier, he expects his men would have little trouble in winning.

ARMY ROMANCE ENDS IN WEDDING

Sergeant Hyrum Barton and Miss Eva Barton Married.

NUPTIALS ARE KEPT SECRET

LOVE HASTENS UNION DESPITE INTENTION TO WAIT.

Bound down by the regulations of army life as applied to the private soldier and hemmed in by the strict rules that occupied most of the day in the which prevented his enjoying home and its comforts, Hyrum Barton, formerly a Salt Lake boy, and belonging to a well known family, waited over a year for Uncle Sam to grant him a release from the service that he might feel free to marry the girl of his choice. Finally, two months ago, in spite of his intention never to make the girl of his choice the wife of a private soldier, human nature gave way, and he and his youthful bride, Miss Eva Barton, were quietly married in Farmington Sept. 8 last. After the secret had been in their possible of the day in the Second district court and was finally compromised after the jury had retired but before it could report. The case was all over the ownership of a horse, of which the husband has possession but which the wife has claimed ever since she instituted proceedings for divorce. A great deal of trouble was experienced in getting a jury, for the reason that prejudice existed against Winslow because of the serious criminal charge with which he is soon to be tried. The regular panel was exhausted and two special venires had to be summoned. The case then had to be tried with seven jurors instead of eight. After the secret had been in their possession alone for nearly two months, business affairs made it necessary for him to acknowledge his wife, and they now make formal announcement of the bond.

When, three years ago, Hyrum Barton enlisted in the service of Uncle Sam, he had little thought that the service was to interfere in any way with his future happiness, and it was with a light heart that he sought to see with a light heart that he sought to see more of the world from a soldier's stondpoint than had been possible in his private life. After a period of service abroad he returned to his native town to find that the girl whom he had cared for in boyhood's days was still true to him, and the old love affair was renewed. But the period of his allegiance to his government was not yet ended and he thought to be an untrammeled American citizen, and not a private in the army, before he should claim her as his bride.

HIGH SCHOOLS MEET

HERE SATURDAY

The Salt Lake High school and the Ogden High school will meet in this city Saturday for the first game this season. These two schools are the oldest rivals in the state and for the past six years it has been a bitter fight between them for the state High school champlonship. This year it is hard to get a line on the two teams. The local school, however, is playing fast ball, and there is no reason to doubt that the Ogden aggregation is doing the same.
